4. Does the licensee provide information identifying each Core Program aired on its station, including an indication of the target child audience, to publishers of program guides as required by 47 C.F.R. Section 73.673? ☒ Yes ☐ No
5. Complete the following for each program that you aired during the past three months that meets the definition of Core Programming. Complete chart below for each Core Program.

Title of Program #1: Dora the Explorer			Origination Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times aired	Number of Preemptions	If preempted and rescheduled, list date and time aired.
Saturday/9:30-10AM	13	0
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 2 years to 5 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.

In this series seven-year-old Dora and her monkey travel companion Boots invite the audience to join them each week on a journey in which they will have to overcome various obstacles to reach an end goal. The series uses a CD-ROM/on-line adventure game format to encourage a variety of problem-solving strategies. The objectives of this program are to assist children in developing their problem-solving skills, reinforce their emerging cognitive skills, and make computers more familiar to them by introducing and using the conventions and vocabulary of computer games.

Title of Program #2: Little Bear			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times aired	Number of Preemptions	If preempted and rescheduled, list date and time aired.
Saturday/10-10:30AM	12	1
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 2 years to 5 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.

Based on the famous books written by Else Homelund Minarik and illustrated by Maurice Sendak, this series follows the spirited adventures of its curious, imaginative and inventive character Little Bear and his childhood friends. From the safety of his loving home and family, Little Bear explores his world and learns new things about himself and others, seeking a small measure of independence within a protected environment. The objectives of the program are to encourage preschoolers to be curious, creative and imaginative and to illustrate for them the value of good relationships with parents and friends and of such traits as loyalty, generosity and empathy.

Title of Program #3: Blues Clues			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times aired	Number of Preemptions	If preempted and rescheduled, list date and time aired.
Saturday/9-9:30AM	13	0
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 2 years to 5 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.

In this series, a young adult host - together with Blue, a puppy whose personality and actions mirror those of a preschooler - brings viewers a variety of games, themes and concepts that are based on an age-appropriate educational curriculum. The program follows a narrative format, in which the host elicits contributions from the viewer to answer questions and move the action forward. The program's objectives include encouraging preschoolers to actively explore the world around them, fostering their problem-solving skills and independent reasoning, and creating a foundation of confidence and optimism for future learning.

Title of Program #4: Little Bill			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times aired	Number of Preemptions	If preempted and rescheduled, list date and time aired.
Saturday/10:30-11AM	12	1
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 2 years to 5 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. This is an animated series based on children's books written by Bill Cosby that examines life through the eyes of a five-year-old boy eager to understand his world. Each episode contains two stories in which Little Bill is faced with a challenge or problem - whether emotional, social or physical - he must solve. The objectives of this series are to encourage children to value themselves and the love and support of their family, friends and community, and to help them develop their social skills and ethical values by dealing with the conflicts in their lives with fairness and creativity.

Title of Program #5: Franklin			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times aired	Number of Preemptions	If preempted and rescheduled, list date and time aired.
Sunday/7-7:30AM	14	0
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 2 years to 5 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. Based on a series by Paulette Bourgeois and Brenda Clark, this program features the adventures of the turtle Franklin and his friends Bear, Snail, Rabbit and Goose. The objectives of the program are to present to young viewers age-appropriate moral dilemmas addressing issues such as the meaning of right and wrong, the purposes of rules and the consequences of following or not following them, and the values inherent in telling the truth, and to teach viewers important social values such as cooperation and compromise, fairness, responsibility, self-respect and respect for others.

Title of Program #6: Kipper			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times aired	Number of Preemptions	If preempted and rescheduled, list date and time aired.
Sunday/7:30-8AM	14	0
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 2 years to 5 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.

This series, based on the children's books by author/illustrator Mick Inkpen, follows a little dog Kipper and his friends. Fueled by Kipper's active imagination, a simple scenario at the start of each episode leads into a story of fantasy and humor, intended to help viewers explore their feelings and thoughts, as well as use their imagination. The objectives of the program are to assist preschoolers in their personal and social development, encourage them to test their own skills and abilities, and introduce them to concepts of cooperation with and care for others.

Non-Core Educational and Informational Programming

Neighborhood Weather Network: Many schools throughout the Kansas City metropolitan area are equipped with Automated Weather Source systems and make up KCTV5's Neighborhood Weather Network. The systems are designed so students and teachers can access their own local weather stations or any other remote station on the network and view the data collected in a number of different formats. This data can be integrated into a hands-on classroom curriculum, including lesson packs for all grade levels. The different weather networks are also used during newscasts to show current weather conditions at different locations throughout the community.
